2. It is critical to note here that your appeal for a dependency override, based on unusual circumstances, must also be supported, in writing, by correspondence from an independent third party (e.g. guidance counselor, community leader, social service agency, legal court documents, church official); not a relative.
3. Submit your completed appeal packet and all supporting documents as soon as possible. Failure to submit a complete packet will result in a delay in processing.
4. Allow five to seven business days for the processing of this appeal and receipt of the decision.
5. Please be aware that the decision rendered by the Financial Aid Office regarding your appeal is FINAL and is not subject to further appeal.
