"I went to a different country with a bunch of strangers and came home with amazing friends. I got to experience new things like food and culture in the most beautiful cities. If I could, I would do this again with no hesitation!"

— ANDREA M., STUDENT

Healthcare & Nursing in the Dominican Republic

LED BY PROFESSOR MICHAEL DRUITT
HAMPTON UNIVERSITY

You'll find people working together around every corner in the Dominican Republic. You can see it in the bustling streets of Santo Domingo, but it's especially visible in rural towns like Rancho Arriba. There, you'll spend quality time with the nurses, doctors and nutritional experts behind each community-centered outreach center, hospital and nursery. You'll soon discover what makes the Dominican Republic a unique and progressive developing country.
