HAMPTON UNIVERSITY
YOUNG
DIPLOMATS
SUMMER PROGRAM

The Residential Camp Experience

The Hampton University Young Diplomats Summer Program (YDP) provides a stimulating and enriching residential experience for high school (rising 9th -12th grade) students from around the country on our beautiful campus. This year's exciting curriculum explores approaches to Leadership and Diplomacy, Topics in Chinese Culture, International Business, and Strategic Communications. Participants will learn through global communication how the United States and China respond to humanitarian issues, thus, how societies help people. This learning experience will be fortified by a trip to Washington, D.C. to visit sites such as the U.S. State Department, the Chinese Embassy, Chinatown, and Potomac Mills Mall.

"The Young Diplomats program was an amazing life changing experience. From the bond of friendship to learning about the history of Hampton's campus, I feel as if I have a new outlook on life." Malik W. YDP Participant.

"I participated in the various courses and workshops during the program. One thing that they all had in common was that they focused on developing students' minds for more than just an education." ~Timothy B., YDP Participant
