STEPHANIE L. YOUNG '06
Executive Director, When We All Vote

Stephanie L. Young serves as the Executive Director of When We All Vote, a non-partisan voting initiative launched by Michelle Obama in 2018. She has over 15 years of strategic communications and public engagement experience ranging from the Obama White House, political campaigns, House Democratic Leadership and leading television networks, BET and NBC Cable Ent. She has a proven track record of building strong connections and developing creative solutions for issues involving culture, entertainment, justice, politics and activism in the public and private sectors.

Stephanie led the When We All Vote’s communications team in 2020, whose messaging and cultural strategy helped register over 500,000 voters— the largest increase in voter participation in over 120 years. She brought strong partnerships to the table and helped recruit over 400 artists, athletes, and influencers to help the campaign reach over 220 million individuals on social media.

During her time in the Obama Administration, Stephanie had the unique opportunity of serving in two critical roles as the Associate Communications Director and then as the Senior Public Engagement Advisor in the Office of Public Engagement. Prior to her White House stint, she worked as the National Press Secretary for Majority Leader Hoyer and Communications Director for the Congressional Black Caucus (CBC).

Stephanie is a 2006 graduate of Hampton University who has also lived in Atlanta, Cape Town, Dallas, Jacksonville, Washington D.C, and Brooklyn before moving to Los Angeles, California where she currently resides.

PRESTIGIOUS SCHOLARSHIPS

Created at points in the early to mid-twentieth century, the Rhodes, Marshall, Fulbright, and Truman Scholarships all bear the names of prominent international political leaders whose visions and aspirations are in many ways reflected in the purpose of these respective prizes and the criteria upon which they are awarded. Added to this list are the Udall, Goldwater, Mitchell, Gilman, and Beneke Scholarships. Since the awards are independent of one another, a student may, in their college career, be eligible to apply to all or at least more than one of these award programs.

A Hampton University objective is to increase the number of student applications for prestigious national and international scholarships. To achieve that objective, we have begun to cultivate a culture that fosters an attitude and ambition to compete for prestigious scholarships. It is our hope that in the very near future there will be a billboard on Highway 64 that announces,
“HAMPTON UNIVERSITY STUDENT RECEIVES THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP.”

THE UNCF/MELLON UNDERGRADUATE FELLOWSHIP

In 1988, the Andrew Mellon Foundation established the Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship-MMUF (previously the Mellon Minority Undergraduate Fellowship) with eight schools: Bryn Mawr College, Carleton College, Cornell University, Hunter College, Oberlin College, Swarthmore College, the University of Chicago, and the University of Pennsylvania. Its mission was to tackle the shortage of faculty of color at institutions of higher education, identifying promising undergraduates with the potential to not only pursue but complete doctoral work in select Mellon-designated fields (principally in, but not limited to, the Liberal Arts/Humanities). Now, celebrating over 30 years to the commitment of transforming the academy, the MMUF Consortium consists of 95 institutions, including 2 South African universities and 39 HBCUs.

Hampton University, along with 37 UNCF colleges/universities, joined the consortium in 1989. To date, Hampton University has graduated 43 MMUF Fellows. Four have completed doctorates. At least thirty have received Masters Degrees. The majority are teaching. Currently, there are four undergraduate fellows on campus.

Guidelines/Eligibility:

- Students must be sophomores (rising juniors) majoring in a Mellon Designated field.
- Students must identify a faculty mentor within their department to guide them during the two-year phase of the undergraduate program.
- Students must commit to participating in the Summer Institute.

UNIVERSITY HONORS COLLEGE

FREDDYE T. DAVY HONORS COLLEGE

Freddye T. Davy Honors College is the primary component of the honors program for those who choose. This is the university program that best addresses the needs of students who possess a seriousness of academic purpose and a desire to be active rather than passive learners, have an intellectual curiosity that supersedes an obsession with grades, seek success rather than avoid failure, have the courage to take intellectual risk and the courage to demonstrate superior, ethical leadership in their chosen fields.

Freddye T. Davy Honors College is an ancillary academic program to the Undergraduate College. The primary focus of the program is the development of intellectual, ethical leadership skills while fostering excellence in education, commitment to the learning process, experimentation, and a sense of learning community. It is designed to augment, enhance, and extend the undergraduate academic experience through community, exposure, and expectations.

NATIONAL and INTERNATIONAL HONOR SOCIETIES

Honor societies at Hampton University are recognized for fostering and maintaining high academic standards, citizenship and collective scholarship within the student body. Undergirding every successful organization is an active, committed and dedicated advisor who mentors, and shepherds the members of the society.

ALPHA KAPPA DELTA

Alpha Kappa Delta (AKD) is the International Sociology Honor Society. AKD was founded in 1920 at the University of Southern California by Dr. Emory S. Bogardus and became affiliated with the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS) in 1967. AKD is also affiliated with the American Sociological Association (ASA). The purpose of Alpha Kappa Delta is to seek to acknowledge and promote excellence in the scholarship in the study of sociology, the research of social problems, and such other social and intellectual activities as will lead to improvement in the human condition. Alpha Kappa Delta is a non-secret, democratic, international society of scholars dedicated to the ideal of Athropon Katamanthanein Diakonesin or "to investigate humanity for the purpose of service." Membership is open to undergraduate students, graduate students, and faculty members from active chapters who meet our minimum standards. Currently, there are more than 130,000 members in Alpha Kappa Delta and over 670 chapters.

Dr. Idonia Barrett, Faculty Advisor

ALPHA KAPPA MU

Alpha Kappa Mu Interdisciplinary Honors Society was conceived in 1937. Its focus is to engage with and influence the academic excellent of American college and university students, irrespective of their major course of study. As such it is one of the few, interdisciplinary honors societies on the campus of Hampton University. Promoting "high scholarship" and "sincere and zealous endeavors in all fields of knowledge and service," Alpha Kappa Mu cultivates "a high order of personal living" while nurturing a student's "appreciation for scholarly work and scholarly endeavor." The organization "seek(s) and welcome(s) the superior college student with a serious purpose in general fields" of study.

During the 2020-2021 Academic Year, AKM facilitated a ZOOM panel discussion, entitled, "Saving Our Mothers: A Panel Discussion on Black Maternal Mortality" in November of 2020. The previous year, in February of 2019, they invited the Honorable Judge Bonnie L. Jones to speak on the topic of "Black Women in Law," sharing her judicial experiences in the city of Hampton, VA. This semester, the organization is doubling its membership, recently inducting thirteen new members.

Dr. Karima K. Jeffrey, Faculty Advisor

ALPHA PHI SIGMA NATIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE HONOR SOCIETY

Alpha Phi Sigma was founded in 1942 at Washington State University. In 1976, it was designated as the National Criminal Justice Honor Society. This organization currently has over 360 chapters who share a commitment to learning and improving the criminal justice field. While the objective of Alpha Phi Sigma is to provide opportunities for the exploration of issues within the criminal justice system, the goal of the Gamma Tau Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma at Hampton University is to raise awareness about minority issues in crime and criminal justice. Activities have included gift sales for fundraising activities and community service projects for disaster and trauma victims, participation in community health fairs to educate others about violence against women, child abuse and victimization, participation in a youth violence and safety conference in the city of Hampton, and presentations on criminal justice/criminology issues pertaining to women and youth of color at community organizations as part of in-service training. The Society recognizes academic excellence by undergraduate and graduate students in the criminal justice/criminology or related field. ## BETA KAPPA CHI

Hampton University's Kappa Chapter of Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Honor Society is an organization that has developed a record of attracting members that are of high achievement, national acclaim in research and have shown exemplary performance in their respective disciplines. Started on the campus of Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, Beta Kappa Chi was founded by young men who believed its motto: "Science Holds the Golden Key to the Royal Palace of Knowledge." In 1921 or 1922, the seed for the establishment of Beta Kappa Chi took root in the minds of two or three undergraduate students. Nurtured in a soil well-watered by devoted, inspirational teachers such as Dr. Harold F. Grim, biology; Dr. Arthur E. James, chemistry; and Dr. Walter L. Wright in mathematics, this seed flowered in 1923 on the campus of Lincoln University, Pennsylvania.

Hampton University's Kappa Chapter under the sponsorship of Dr. T.W. Turner began its embryonic development in 1943. Taking their names from the Greek alphabet in the order of their founding, chapters were rapidly developed during the period 1943-1945. Having used all the letters of the Greek alphabet, new chapters were designated Alpha, Alpha Beta, Alpha Gamma, etc. from 1946-1950. Then, at the national meeting in 1950 held at Central State College, the use of Greek designation for chapters was abolished and the chapters were to be designated by the name of the institution in which they were located. Beta Kappa Chi National Scientific Honor Society was founded in 1923 by the science faculty and science students of Lincoln University, Pennsylvania. Beta Kappa Chi National Honor Society is a collegiate honor society dedicated to the promotion of high scholarship in pure and applied sciences. A member of the Association of College Honor Societies since 1961, Beta Kappa Chi now comprises 67 chapters at colleges and universities across the United States, with over 66,000 members.

The society publishes the Beta Kappa Chi Bulletin and a Booklet of Information; sponsors, stimulates, and encourages a variety of program activities through local chapters; conducts an annual national convention to transact society business and for the presentation of reports on research conducted by undergraduate and graduate members.

THE NATIONAL W. E. B. DU BOIS HONOR SOCIETY

W. E. B. Du Bois Honor Society is a national, non-profit, academic honors organization for pre-college students incorporated and founded on the campus of Hampton University. The Du Bois Honor Society recognizes, encourages, and promotes scholastic achievement, leadership development, and active involvement in positive community activities that solidly promote life-long learning skills. This organization reinforces the concept of honors and affirms that excelling academically is appropriate, desirable and rewarding.

The mission of the Du Bois Honor Society is to nurture the intellect and motivate students who have potential but who are not attracted to nor encouraged to participate in traditional honors programs. This organization is designed to reward performance, not talent -for many are talented, but not all are successful or productive. The Society's focus is two-fold. First, student participants embrace triple Cs – character, competency, and caring. Secondly, faculty who advise and work with students do so by providing triple Es – expectations, exposure, and experiences.

The mission and program of the Du Bois Honor Society is implemented through local chapters that operate under the national standard outlined in the organization's constitution but do so in a manner that is effective and appropriate to meet the needs of each local community and constituency. Variety, cultural activities, sensitivity, ingenuity and resourcefulness are strongly encouraged.

Currently, the Director of Hampton University's Honors College serves as executive director. The national office of the Society is a part of the Honors College at Hampton University. The national office handles chartering of National Du Bois Honor Society Senior and Junior chapters as well as inquiries regarding the Constitution of the Society. Additionally, the national office plans and implements an Invitational Honors Conference, coordinates the selection of recipients for awards and scholarships, and facilitates the means of communication between the national office of the organization and its affiliated chapters. The Society's Constitution strictly prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, physical disability, or social status.

HONORS DAY SEAL

The Honors Day Seal was authorized by the Hampton University Honors Council for its 1989 Honors Day Program. The seal features a drawing of the Emancipation Oak and the Latin phrase, “Scientia et Veritas.” The Emancipation Oak symbolizes strength and continuity; Hampton University’s first students were instructed beneath its branches. The Latin words, ‘scientia’ and ‘veritas’ translate into ‘knowledge’ and ‘truth.’ This phrase embodies the academic spirit that is the hallmark of the students and faculty of Hampton University. Ms. Karen W. Best and Mr. Jack O’Kelley, III designed the original seal. The original artwork was done by Mr. Jay Wright. The seal was digitally updated to its current form in 2018.

ALMA MATER

Words by: Sarah Collins Fernandis, 1882

Music by: Chauncey Northern, 1924

O Hampton, a thought sent from Heaven above,
To be a great soul's inspiration;
We sing thee the earnest of broad human love,
The shrine of our heart's adoration.
Thy foundation firm and thy roof tree out spread,
And thy sacred altar-fires burning;
The sea circling 'round thee, soft skies overhead,
Dear Hampton, the goal of our yearning!

Refrain

O Hampton, we never can make thee a song,
Except as our lives do the singing;
In service that will thy great spirit prolong,
And send it through centuries ringing!

Kind mother, we'll treasure the dear happy days,
We've spent here in life's preparation;
Yet go with brave hearts upon our chosen ways,
Of service to god and our nation;
Still wearing our colors, the blue and the white,
As pledge that our fond hearts will cherish;
A love which for thee ever shines true and bright,
A loyalty that ne'er can perish!
