ADVICE ON PREPARATION TO ENTER HAMPTON UNIVERSITY
FALL 2017

Dear New Hamptonian and Parent:

Congratulations and welcome to your new Home By The Sea! You are entering Hampton University and the Residence Life staff is looking forward to working with you. There are a few things that you need to know prior to the beginning of your journey here.

We advise you to bring a positive attitude about your academic pursuits. It is important that you learn early about the importance of balancing your time between studies and social activities. Hampton University established our Code of Conduct and our Dress Code, as important parts of our honor system. Make sure that you read, understand and can be comfortable living and learning by them. It is the set of values that keeps the Hampton Family strong.

Below you will find the address to which trunks and other items may be sent in advance of your arrival.

Your Name
Your Residence Hall Room Number
Name of Your Residence Hall
Hampton University
Hampton VA 23668

Do not ship anything to reach campus more than two days prior to your expected arrival so you will be here to receive it. You should be here when it arrives. UPS items, however, will be held at the Central Warehouse (3 Shore Road, Hampton University, Hampton VA 23668).

Please do not try to beat the rush by arriving before the established reporting dates. The residence hall will not open and you will not be allowed to occupy your room prior to the opening of the hall on August 18, 2017. You should not arrive earlier than the day noted on your room assignment.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Be advised that all on-campus facilities are completely closed between December 16, 2017 and January 9, 2018 for Winter/Christmas Break and March 3, 2018 thru 11, 2018 during Spring Break. Students are not allowed to stay on campus during these periods. Additionally, all students are expected to vacate residence halls 48-hours after the students' last final examination during finals week.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

By now you have seen and hopefully have read our Dress Code and Code of Conduct. We have enclosed copies of both of these important documents in this mailing for your information and attention.

You will receive a bound copy of the Official Student Handbook for 2017-18 when you arrive. You will also have access to the on-line Official Student Handbook and you will hear from the Vice-President for Administrative Services and the residence life staff about our rules and regulations. Please read your Handbook thoroughly. The entire University Community will expect you to be familiar with the contents of the handbook.

Freshmen and Sophomores living on-campus are not permitted to bring automobiles to Hampton University.

We are sending the enclosed list of items for you to use as a guide in determining what items you should and should not bring with you.

If you have any questions about the information in this package or if you want to ask a question, please call our offices!

Sincerely,

Jewel B. Long

Therefore to accost, cajole, or proselytize students, faculty or staff, parents or others, to engage in gender and sexual harassment, use vile, obscene or abusive language or exhibit lewd behavior, to possess weapons such as knives or firearms, or to be involved in the possession, use, distribution of and sale of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited and is in direct violation of the Hampton University Code, on or off campus.

3. To respect the rights and property of others and to discourage vandalism and theft.

Hampton University Dress Code

The Dress Code is based on the theory that learning to use socially acceptable manners and selecting attire appropriate to specific occasions and activities are critical factors in the total educational process. Understanding and employing these behaviors not only improves the quality of one's life, but also contributes to optimum morale, as well as embellishes the overall campus image. They also play a major role in instilling a sense of integrity and an appreciation for values and ethics.

The continuous demonstration of appropriate manners and dress insures that Hampton University students meet the very minimum standards of quality achievement in the social, physical, moral and educational aspects of their lives - essential areas of development necessary for propelling students toward successful careers.

Students will be denied admission to various functions if their manner of dress is inappropriate. On this premise students at Hampton University are expected to dress neatly at all times. The following are examples of appropriate dress for various occasions:

1. Classroom, Cafeteria, Student Center and University offices - neat, modest, casual or dressy attire.
2. Formal programs in Ogden Hall, the Convocation Center, the Little Theater and the Memorial Chapel - business or dressy attire.
3. Interviews - business attire.
4. Social/Recreational activities, Residence hall lounges (during visitation hours) - modest, casual or dressy attire.
5. Balls, Galas, and Cabarets - formal, semi-formal and dressy respectively.

Students will be denied admission to various functions if their manner of dress is inappropriate.

Examples of inappropriate dress and/or appearance include:

1. Do-rags, stocking caps, skullcaps and bandanas (prohibited at all times on the campus of Hampton University except in the privacy of the student's living quarters);
2. Head coverings and hoods for men in any building;
3. Baseball caps and hoods for women in any building. This policy item does not apply to headgear considered as a part of religious or cultural dress;
4. Bare feet;
5. Shorts that reveal buttocks;
6. Shorts, all types of jeans at programs dictating professional or formal attire, such as Musical Arts, Fall Convocation, Founder's Day, and Commencement;
7. Clothing with derogatory, offensive and/or lewd messages either in words or pictures;
8. Men's undershirts of any color worn outside of the private living quarters of the residence halls;
9. Sports jerseys without a conventional tee-shirt underneath; and
10. Men and Women's pants that show underwear.

Dress Code: Procedures for Cultural or Religious Head Coverings

1. Students seeking approval to wear headgear as an expression of religious or cultural dress may make a written request for a review through the Office of the Chaplain.
2. The Chaplain will forward her recommendation to the Vice President for Administrative Services for final approval.
3. Students that are approved will then have their new ID card picture taken by University Police with the headgear being worn.

All administrative, faculty and support staff members will be expected to monitor student behavior applicable to this dress code and report any such disregard or violations to the Offices of the Dean of Judicial Affairs & Housing, or Dean of Residence Life for the attention of the Vice President for Administrative Services.
