

HEERF I

As part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES), the U.S. Department of Education appropriated emergency funding to colleges to support students with expenses and financial needs relating to the COVID 19 Pandemic. Hampton University was awarded $2,132,171 under Section 18004(a) (1) CARES Act program through the U.S. Department of Education.

Through the HEERF I program, students received aid to address expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, per United States Department of Education guidelines.

As of June 30, 2021, Hampton has distributed $2,132,171 in Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004 (a) (1) of the CARES Act.

The estimated total of Hampton students eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, and thus eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004 (a) (1) of the CARES Act is approximately 3,315.

Each 2019-2021 Title IV eligible undergraduate, graduate, professional students and continuing education (CE) student enrolled in the spring 2020, including 2020 graduating seniors, will receive $500.

Each 2019-20 Pell eligible returning undergraduate and continuing education (CE) student enrolled in the Spring 2020 semester will receive an additional $405 for a total of $905.

Hampton uses the following criteria to determine student eligibility for CARES Act Emergency Financial Aid Grants:

- Filed a 2019-20 FAFSA prior to or during the 2019-20 academic year;
- Enrolled at Hampton during the Spring 2020 semester;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to be eligible for Title IV aid; and
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to be eligible for Federal Pell Grant;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to meet satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of a degree or certificate program.

Hampton University informed all eligible students via emails of the process for applying for CARES Act Emergency Financial Aid Grants via email. Hampton also posted information regarding CARES Act Emergency Financial Aid Grants eligibility on the University's main website.

HEERF II

As part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) (CRRSAA), the U.S. Department of Education appropriated an additional $2,132,171 to support students with expenses and financial needs relating to the COVID 19 Pandemic. Through HEERF II program, students received aid to address expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, per United States Department of Education guidelines.

As of June 30, 2021 Hampton has distributed $2,132,171 in Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under section 18004 (a) 1) of the Cares Act.

The estimated total of Hampton students eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, and thus eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004 (a) (1) of the Cares Act is 3,292.

Eligible students were required to meet the following Title IV federal student aid requirements:

- Filed a 2020-2021 FAFSA prior to or during the 2020-2021 academic year;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to be eligible for Title IV aid;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to be an eligible undergraduate, graduate, professional students, to include students enrolled exclusively “On Line” during the fall or spring semester or enrolled concurrent semesters;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to be eligible for Federal Pell grant;
- Determined by the Financial Aid Office to meet satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of a degree or certificate program.

Hampton University informed all eligible via emails of the process for accepting the emergency financial aid grants.

HEERF III

As part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act passed by Congress, the U.S. ED authorized Hampton University to allocate an additional $5,121,053 in May 2021 to assist students as part of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III):

Students eligible for HEERF III Funds were required to meet the following criteria and Title IV federal student aid eligibility requirements:

- Must have been enrolled during the spring 2020 academic semester as of March 13, 2020 or after during the COVID 19 national emergency in at least 6 credits in a degree-seeking program or in a Teacher Certification program
- Submitted FAFSA for 2020-21 aid year
- Must have made satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of degree certificate

Emergency Relief Grant funding is limited to students who meet eligibility criteria and such funding will not likely meet complete financial needs. These funds are a one-time grant and are not renewable. The following are also considered expenses under a student's cost of attendance, related to the disruption of university operations due to COVID-19:

- Housing: Expenses related to paying rent for off-campus housing, or to reimburse housing costs and living expenses due to relocation.
- Food: Expenses related to buying groceries, or to reimburse meal costs associated with finding non-institutional alternatives.
- Moving/Shipping: Expenses associated with the closure of residence halls such as moving, shipping and storage fees.
- Suspension of Study-Abroad: Expenses related to cancelation or suspension of study-abroad programs, including unused supplies, visa or passport fees.
- Technology: Expenses related to the purchase of technology needs for distance learning, not limited to computers, printers, software and internet access.
- Transportation: Expenses related to unexpected transportation costs (e.g. returning from study-abroad, moving off campus, returning home) or prepaid bus, subway, or commuter rail passes.

As of June 30 2021, Hampton University had no student disbursements.

